

Cheers!?

Do we really live in a time when beer bottles are only thing that “adorns” the coast of the Danube? We could run away from the problem and pretend that it does not exist, but it’s fact that rivers are extremely polluted which causes death of many species and bad quality of drinking water. It is time to finally change the situation and remove all trash from river.

